Description
Hello , All Of You !!  I am using audacious as my basic music -player. I am using it customized as my former " Winamp " player back in the good old days ! I see there is no feature for the song name scroll itself in the taskbar , could this feature be added in the next versions ?! ( P.S - I am a linux lover !!:)! Deep Thanks !!  Radu -

I've never seen a Linux taskbar that supports this. If one exists, please educate me on how it is done.
