Audacious - OLD, PLEASE USE GITHUB DISCUSSIONS/ISSUES - Support #690

There is no disk in the drive....

December 18, 2016 13:19 - STEVE BEATTIE

Status:	Closed	Start date:	December 18, 2016
Priority:	Minor	Due date:
Assignee:		% Done:	0%
Category:		Estimated time:	0.00 hour
Target version:
Affects version:

Description
Lately I have been receiving the message "There is no disk in the drive. Please insert a disk into drive I:" How do I fix this issue? I am running version 3.8.1

History

#1 - December 18, 2016 14:37 - John Lindgren

You can start by giving more information.

What triggers the message? Is it on startup?
What type of drive is I: ? Is there a disk in it?
Have you played files on I: before? Are they still in your playlist?

#2 - December 18, 2016 14:38 - John Lindgren

- Tracker changed from Bug to Support

#3 - January 29, 2017 19:30 - John Lindgren

- Status changed from New to Closed

Closing due to lack of response.

Files

Clipboard01.jpg	35.1 KB	December 18, 2016	STEVE BEATTIE