History

#1 - December 22, 2018 03:18 - kevin tee

Its has been confirm to happen only to Audacious. Playing music with other application like firefox. Other people reported that only Audacious show this problem.

Check out this Reddit thread about the report.

- Status changed from New to Rejected

It looks like the KDE widget is trying to interpolate the position counter and doing a bad job of it.

You should report a bug to KDE.
