Description Curiously enough, if you increase scaling to 125%, it renders correctly. I've attached a screenshot of what it looks like at 125%, named 125.jpeg. If you keep Audacious open and set the scaling on Windows 10 back down to 100%, it looks fine, however everything else is blurred, which would mean restarting it. After you restart it, you're stuck with the same problem: a blurry icon. Just an FYI. My monitor is a resolution of 1902 x 1080. All drivers are up to date. Windows 10 Pro is up to date.
